

Currently, the group 1 Fedora VM does not appear to be working due to Keyboard input failure. Power cycling does not appear to be fixing the issue. Is this something from the Red Team, or is this something that technical support can assist with?