

Management of password changes to active accounts is an important aspect of IT security. Password policy does not allow changes to passwords for service accounts during the competition.

Services are not scored on admin, administrator, sysadmin, or root accounts, so teams may change passwords on these accounts anytime without notification response to this inject.